New Orleans, Feb. 8.-Before probably the largest crowd that has witnessed any race in New Orleans this season, Old Rose of Pink..... Honesty, a 15-to-1-chance, and ridden by J. Lee, the negro jockey, won the St. Charles Hotel Handicap from Yankee Lady Girl, the 4-to-5-favorite, and the heavilyweighted Juggler, at the Fair Grounds to-

In the feature event Yankee Girl and . Temaceo were the favorites, but all faith | D was pinned in Yankee Girl by the Ellison Stable. The game little mare, however, just fell short of the victory when she had it apparently won.

Old Honesty was rushed to the front at the start, and Lee kept him there until the last quarter, where Yankee John McBride Girl and Juggler challenged. There was not much to spare between the trio at any stage of the journey, but Lee's strong T finish landed Old Honesty in front.

The race was a three-horse one from start to finish, the other three starters being beaten off after the first half-mile R

Forty-five Teams Are Grouped in Fourteen Divisions, with Pennsylvania-All-Wasnington Match the Feature Race of the Programme. Complete List of Schools.

The fifth renewal of the Federal indoor games at Convention Hall next Saturday night will be notable for having in competition four men who are almost certain to be members of the American team at the Olympic games in London next July, and two others who will make strong bids for places. Five of these men are national champions, and three of them record-holders. The four who are certain to be in the Olympic games are Martin Sheridan, of the Irish-American Club of New York, who won the world's all-round championship at Athens in 1906; Guy Haskins of the University of Pennsylvania, intercollegiate half-mile, one-mile, and crosscountry champion, and holder of the mile record; Matt McGrath, of the New York Athletic Club, conqueror and cousin of the mighty Flanagan, American hammer throwing champion, and N. J. Cartmell, captain of the Pennsylvania team, and for three years intercollegiate champion in the 100 and 220 yards' run. Besides these, W. A. Paull, formerly of Mercersburg Academy, new at Pennsylvania, and the mile run, and J. A. Beck, of the Quaker team, with a record of 1:57 3-5 for the half-mile, are likely to make places. Besides these star performers, there will be 400 other good athletes in the twenty-eight events, representing practically every college, school, and club between Philadelphia and Richmond prominent in athletics.
